

A large grid of 25 identical letter J's arranged in five rows and five columns. The letters are black and have a bold, sans-serif font style.

The image shows a large, dense grid of black 'U' characters. The grid is roughly triangular in shape, tapering towards the right side of the frame. Each row contains a single 'U' character, and the rows are staggered to create a repeating pattern. The 'U' characters are bold and black, set against a white background.
